ACMin in Action

The Athens College of Ministry is an interdenominational ministry preparation college. ACMin offers certificate, degree, and non-degree training in Christian growth and leadership. In addition to biblically-based, hands-on ministry training, ACMin hosts five community-wide events each year for the purpose of gathering the community of Christ-followers from our area churches to pray, serve, worship and teach. Local businesses are warmly invited to serve as 2017 sponsors of the college and these events. ACMin is a 501c3 organization; your contributions are tax deductible.
